

UCPD Crime Alert: Lewd Acts Arrest

RIVERSIDE, CAL. (www.ucr.edu) —UCR police have arrested a Coachella man in connection with an indecent exposure incident. The incident followed several other similar incidents on and near campus.

At 4:03 p.m. on Monday, March 19, a female UCR student called UC police and said that a man inside a vehicle had just exposed himself at the intersection of North Campus and Aberdeen drives, on the UCR campus. The suspect drove away.

According to police, the student caller provided a detailed description, which allowed them to apprehend a suspect shortly after, at the nearby intersection of Canyon Crest Drive and Linden Street.

Police have charged Kevin Alexander Reyes, 21, of Coachella, with indecent exposure, which is a misdemeanor if a first offense; a felony charge on subsequent offenses. He was released, with a court date of June 12 set.

UC Police said they are investigating other recent indecent exposure reports on and near campus to determine if the episodes are related.
