Crime Alert - Assault in Rivera Library

On 6/13/2012 at about 8:30pm, a subject who had been following a female student employee in Rivera Library grabbed her buttocks and quickly left the area. UCPD officers responded, but were unable to locate the suspect.

UCPD is asking for the community’s assistance in reporting any suspicious activity in the library areas.

SUSPECT DESCRIPTION:
Possibly a middle eastern adult male, early 20’s, about 6’3" 210 lbs., unshaven face with a white blemish under his left eye. Last seen wearing a red zip up sweater.

UCPD detectives are investigating this crime. Please be aware of your surroundings, especially in the library areas. Many students are spending more late night hours at the libraries studying for finals. The Science Library is open 24 hours a day this week, so extra diligence and awareness there is recommended. Please call UCPD at 951-827-5222 if you see any suspicious activity in the library areas.

It is the duty of the University of California Police Department to warn of possible dangerous conditions on or near campus. This message is being sent in compliance with the "Timely Notice" provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998.
