Crime Alert: Attempted Sexual Assault

On Thursday, April 25, 2013, UCPD dispatch received a call of an attempted sexual assault that had just occurred in the area of Bannockburn Village. The victim reported that the suspect had approached her from behind, grabbed her and struggled to pull her to the ground. During the struggle, the victim was able to strike the suspect repeatedly and eventually escape from his grasp. She fled the area and phoned the police. Officers were immediately dispatched to the area to search for the suspect, and the Riverside Police Department was also notified of the incident. UCPD officers are continuing to search for the suspect. The victim described the suspect as follows:

Black male adult, 40 to 45 years of age. He stands 5’09” to 6’00’, and weighs about 200 lbs. He has bushy hair and a stocky build. He was last seen wearing a light-colored shirt, black pants and a black back pack.

UCPD detectives are actively investigating this case, and the department will release details to the community as they become available.
